Day 2 – Friday Paris

This morning enjoy a full day (8 hours) sightseeing tour in Paris with your private vehicle and qualified English-speaking guide. This overview tour will include famous Parisian sights such as the Eiffel Tower, Arc de Triomphe and the Champs Elysées. In the afternoon you will visit the Marais, one of Paris's most historic districts. This area houses many former residences of aristocratic families, which have now been restored and are now museums. You will see the Place des Vosges, lined with pink brick and covered arcades. You will have the opportunity to visit the Musée Picasso which houses works from every period of the artist's life. Continue to the Ile de la Cité, where you will visit the Sainte Chapelle, a pearl of Gothic architecture.

Lunch suggestion: Jules Verne Restaurant in the Eiffel Tower

Day 5 – Monday
Paris

Today you will be met at your hotel by your guide for the walk over to the world-famous Louvre Museum. The Louvre is housed in a magnificent building, which was originally built for use as a royal palace for King Francis I. The main entrance is now covered by a large glass, steel rod and cable pyramid designed by the American architect I. M. Pei. It is home to one of the most important art collections in the Western world, spanning the period from remotest antiquity, through to about 1850.
